

ikubINFO is the largest software engineering company in Albania.

The team of 100+ certified developers in modern technologies is our key to success. While solidifying our position in Albania as the leader company in providing software engineering services for the most important e-Government systems in Albania, we are expanding our activities in European markets as well.

ikubINFO is working to create an online magazine, entirely focused on business, entrepreneurship, innovation and technology. Apart from having our internal editorial staff, the magazine will be an open platform, enabling external users to contribute with content. It will have no periodical prints (weekly or monthly), nor special editions of e-book magazines which are distributed online.

We are looking for two motivated and highly passionate journalists to join us as part of the editorial staff in the position:
